

20 Things You Can Do To Support Local Business and still maintain social distancing

1. Spring Cleaning – buy cleaning supplies and equipment locally
2. Honey-Do Projects – buy painting supplies, building materials, hardware locally
3. Home Remodel & Repair – Contractors, HVAC, Roofing, Plumbing, Electrical are all working
4. Auto, Truck & RV Services – local professionals are open, drop off your vehicle
5. Personal Care – make appt for a haircut or other salon service (or buy a gift card for later)
6. Animal & Pet Care – hire a local groomer, farrier, or veterinary service, or buy hay or feed
7. Donate – local food pantries, animal rescues, and wildlife parks need to keep food coming
8. Take Out/Dine At Home – or buy restaurant gift certificates and use later
9. Finance & Insurance – call your professional and do business consultations over the phone
10. Taxes – while you have time, gather records and get it done (by phone, drop off/pick up)
11. Real Estate – search properties or land online, arrange showings with your realtor
12. Clean Out the garage/extra room – store furniture/items at local storage facilities
13. Outdoor Activities – need equipment, get it locally – good for stress reduction
14. Shipping & Office Services – ship gifts to family/friends, purchase items/supplies locally
15. Work from Home – buy your ink, paper, office supplies locally
16. Home & Garden – Spring is coming, get your yard equipment, supplies, plants, seeds locally
17. Memberships – gyms, fitness centers, networking groups – renew/join now, use later
18. Water Delivery & Systems – start getting water/coffee delivered or install a system at home
19. Construction Materials & Services – get gravel delivered, get a dumpster, purchase lumber
20. Advertising & Art – we rely on media, they rely on advertising & artwork – pre-purchase ad space, get ad artwork done now for later in the year.

Get Creative—Use Your Time at Home—Support Local Business

Search our Directory for businesses and service providers

www.GreaterEdgewoodAreaChamber.com

